The screenshot shows the website's navigation menu (Home, About Us, Terms, News, Contact) and a 'Submit a Job' button. The main content area features a news article titled 'User Guide' by Ranui Donaldson, dated July 21, 2014. The article discusses the launch of the site and lists four updates: information bubbles, compulsory input areas, a user manual video, and user guide fact sheets. A 'Submit a Job' button is also visible on the right side of the page.

User Guide

Posted by Ranui Donaldson | July 21, 2014 | General News

Good afternoon all,

The launch of the site has been an excellent learning curve for us at the Manjimup Community Resource Centre!

Currently we have many job seekers with profiles that are not complete or do not have a resume attached, to overcome this problem Sumit Dutta, our wonderful website designer will be making some changes very soon:

1. Information bubbles that will indicate important areas to complete
2. Changing some input areas to "COMPULSORY" so that our users register successfully
3. Sumit, my staff and I are also creating an easy to understand "USER MANUAL VIDEO" to upload that will be available very soon
4. We are also creating user guide fact sheets that you will be able to download as a PDF file or view online.

The other additon yopu will soon see is.....

1. We are adding a "Backpacker Accommodation" drop down so our visitors can see the best options for friendly accommodation

It is very important to me that we continually strive to improve the site to ensure it is as easy to understand as possible.
